metafictional and deconstructive offensive and indicates the direction in which Brautigan was moving at the time The Edna Webster Collection of Undiscovered Writings Richard Brautigan, 1999 Published 15 years after his suicide this all new youthful work by Brautigan was written a decade before he found sudden fame with Trout Fishing in America Fly Me to the Moon Dayton Lummis, 2013-09-27 To some this collection of commentary and observations fourth in what now must be called The Notational Quartet might seem as remote as the proverbial Man in the Moon But the reader will find it very relevant to the changing and troubled times that we find ourselves in The author has steered the reader and vessel to a distant and little known shore where hope for return to point of origin is very much in doubt The boats that left from the same harbor have rowed away from one another Cold War Anthropology David H. Price, 2016-03-10 In Cold War Anthropology David H Price offers a provocative account of the profound influence that the American security state has had on the field of anthropology since the Second World War Using a wealth of information unearthed in CIA FBI and military records he maps out the intricate connections between academia and the intelligence community and the strategic use of anthropological research to further the goals of the American military complex The rise of area studies programs funded both openly and covertly by government agencies encouraged anthropologists to produce work that had intellectual value within the field while also shaping global counterinsurgency and development programs that furthered America's Cold War objectives Ultimately the moral issues raised by these activities prompted the American Anthropological Association to establish its first ethics code Price concludes by comparing Cold War era anthropology to the anthropological expertise deployed by the military in the post 9 11 era The Oxford Companion to American Literature James D. Hart, Phillip Leininger, 1995-10-12 For more than half a century James D Hart's The Oxford Companion to American Literature has been an unparalleled guide to America's literary culture providing one of the finest resources to this country's rich history of great writers Now this acclaimed work has been completely revised and updated to reflect current developments in the world of American letters For the sixth edition editors James D Hart and Phillip Leininger have updated the Companion in light of what has happened in American literature since 1982 To this end they have revised the entries on such established authors as Saul Bellow Norman Mailer and Joyce Carol Oates and they have added more than 180 new entries on novelists T Coraghessan Boyle Tim O'Brien Louise Erdrich Don De Lillo poets Rita Dove Weldon Kees playwrights Wendy Wasserstein August Wilson popular writers Stephen King Louis L Amour historians James M McPherson David Herbert Donald William Manchester naturalists Aldo Leopold Edward Abbey and literary critics Camille Paglia Richard Ellmann In addition the Companion boasts more women's African American and ethnic voices with new entries on such luminaries as Charlotte Perkins Gilman M F K Fisher William Least Heat Moon Ursula Le Guin and Oscar Hijuelos among many others These additions represent only some of the revisions for the new edition Of course the basic qualities of the Companion that readers have grown to know and love over the years are as superb as ever With over 5 000 total entries The Oxford Companion to
